

Center-Finder Toy

William Collett of Bettendorf, Iowa, found a clever way to make a center-finder tool using some of his child's toys. He simply connected Lego pieces like the ones shown above. With a pencil in one end piece, the center-finder adjusts for varying thicknesses of lumber.